152 Dirksen Senate Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Honorable Sessions,

As the President of the National Asian Peace Officers Association (NAPOA), a nationwide coalition of Asians in law enforcement organizations, it is a privilege that I write to you regarding the nomination of Goodwin Liu to serve on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. In your joint capacity as the Ranking Republican Member of the Senate Committee on the Judiciary, I ask that you act expeditiously to consider and confirm his nomination.

The National Asian Peace Officers Association was founded in 1981. Our members are law enforcement professionals from every branch of the federal, state and local government. With more than five thousand members nationwide, the Association serves as a link with our ethnic communities by interfacing with other community-based organizations and sponsoring special events to maintain our heritage.

Professor Goodwin Liu has distinguished himself as an acclaimed scholar and professor, and a proven authority on constitutional law. Because of his vast knowledge and experience, Professor Liu has earned the respect of my members and the large audience of the law enforcement community. Professor Goodwin Liu is a person of integrity, dedication, passion, enthusiasm, and law and order. NAPOA maintains that someone who possesses the extensive knowledge, fair-mindedness, and excellent judgment with balance beliefs should hold a seat on the U.S. Court of Appeals.

Professor Goodwin Liu's unwavering devotion to the Asian American and Pacific Islander community as well as the Asian law enforcement community exemplifies not only being true to himself and his values, but more importantly being true to innate value that our members acknowledge as respectable. I believe Goodwin Liu would serve impartially and competently and strongly support his nomination for the U.S. Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals with absolute confidence. Furthermore, Goodwin Liu will add diversity to the federal courts of appeals to better represent and serve the diversity of the State of California and this great nation.
